

LACHRYMIFORM

Meaning: Lachrymiform refers to something that causes or resembles tears; evoking sadness or a tearful emotional response.

1. The artist's painting evoked a lachrymiform response from the audience, as they were deeply moved by its emotional depth.
2. In literature, the lachrymiform nature of the protagonist's journey resonates with readers who have experienced similar loss.
3. The documentary captured the lachrymiform expressions on the faces of the survivors, highlighting their grief and resilience.
4. During the emotional scene, the actor's lachrymiform portrayal of sorrow captivated the entire theater.
5. The lachrymiform qualities of the music created an atmosphere of reflection and sadness, drawing listeners into its poignant narrative.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lachrymiform>