

LACHRYMOSE

Meaning: Lachrymose: inclined to weep or express sorrow; tearful.

1. The film's lachrymose scenes left the audience in tears.
2. Her lachrymose expression revealed the depth of her sorrow.
3. He wrote a lachrymose ballad that captured the heartache of lost love.
4. The novel is known for its lachrymose tone, exploring themes of grief and loss.
5. Despite its lachrymose content, the story ultimately conveys a message of hope.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lachrymose>