

LACK

Meaning: LACK (noun): the state of not having enough of something necessary or desirable.

1. The project was delayed due to a lack of funding.
2. She felt a lack of support from her colleagues during the difficult times.
3. His lack of experience in the field was evident during the interview.
4. There was a noticeable lack of communication between the team members.
5. The community expressed concern over the lack of resources available for education.
6. The team faced a lack of resources that hindered their progress on the project.
7. Despite his talent, he struggled due to a lack of confidence in his abilities.
8. The report highlighted a lack of clear communication between departments.
9. Many students dropped out of the program because of a lack of support from faculty.
10. Her success was largely attributed to her determination, rather than a lack of opportunities.
11. The project suffered from a lack of funding, which ultimately led to its cancellation.
12. Many students expressed a lack of interest in the new curriculum introduced this semester.
13. Her lack of experience in the field did not deter her from applying for the job.
14. They felt a profound lack of support from their peers during the challenging times.
15. The report highlighted a lack of data on the long-term effects of the medication.
16. She felt a profound lack of support from her friends during tough times.
17. Despite his talent, he struggled to find success because of a lack of opportunity.
18. The lack of communication between the teams led to significant misunderstandings.
19. Her speech was well-received, but it lacked the passion she usually brings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lack>