

LACKER

Meaning: Lacker (noun): a glossy protective coating or finish applied to surfaces, often made from resin or varnish.

1. The painter was frustrated because he had run out of lacquer for his finishing touches.
2. Her furniture was beautifully restored, thanks to a layer of lacquer that gave it a glossy sheen.
3. He decided to apply a new coat of lacquer to protect the wood from moisture damage.
4. The artist preferred to use natural finishes rather than synthetic lacquer for a more authentic look.
5. After sanding the surface, she carefully applied the lacquer to achieve a smooth and durable finish.
6. The artist decided to use a lacker to give her sculpture a glossy finish.
7. After the rain, the once vibrant colors of the lacker on the car looked dull and faded.
8. He carefully applied a thin coat of lacker to protect the wood from moisture.
9. The furniture's lacker had chipped away in several places, revealing the bare wood underneath.
10. To achieve a professional look, the craftsman recommended using a high-quality lacker for the final coat.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lacker>