

LACONIZE

Meaning: LACONIZE: to express or summarize information in a concise and brief manner.

1. To effectively communicate, she decided to laconize her lengthy presentation into key points.
2. His tendency to laconize discussions often left his colleagues wanting more detail.
3. In an effort to save time, the editor asked the writer to laconize the article without losing its essence.
4. During the meeting, she managed to laconize her ideas, making them more impactful and easier to understand.
5. The professor encouraged his students to laconize their essays, focusing on clarity and conciseness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laconize>