

LACQUERING

Meaning: Lacquering refers to the application of a protective and often glossy coating to a surface, typically wood or artwork, to enhance its appearance and durability.

1. Lacquering the wooden surface gave it a stunning glossy finish.
2. The artist spent hours perfecting the lacquering process on the intricate sculpture.
3. After lacquering the furniture, it stood out beautifully in the sunlight.
4. She learned the art of lacquering from her grandfather, who was a master craftsman.
5. The final step of the restoration involved lacquering to protect the delicate details.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lacquering>