

LACTIFEROUS

Meaning: Lactiferous refers to structures or ducts in the mammary glands that are responsible for carrying and delivering milk.

1. The lactiferous ducts play a crucial role in the anatomy of the mammary gland.
2. In mammals, the lactiferous system is essential for the delivery of milk to the offspring.
3. She studied the lactiferous structures under a microscope to understand their function better.
4. During pregnancy, the lactiferous glands undergo significant changes in preparation for breastfeeding.
5. The lactiferous openings on the nipple allow for the efficient transfer of milk during nursing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lactiferous>