

LADIFY

Meaning: Ladify (verb): to modernize or update something, particularly by adding contemporary elements or styles.

1. The goal of the workshop is to ladify traditional garments, giving them a modern twist.
2. In her quest to ladify the old-fashioned kitchen, she replaced the heavy curtains with light, airy ones.
3. Fashion designers are increasingly looking to ladify their collections by incorporating brighter colors and playful patterns.
4. His attempt to ladify the vintage car resulted in a sleek, contemporary look that turned heads.
5. With a few simple changes, she managed to ladify the entire living space, making it feel fresh and inviting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ladify>