

LAG

Meaning: Lag refers to a delay or a slowdown in progress or performance compared to others or expected standards.

1. The team struggled to keep up with the pace of their competitors, creating a noticeable lag in their performance.
2. His computer experienced a lag, causing frustrating delays during the important video conference.
3. Despite the lag in communication, the project was still completed on time due to everyone's dedication.
4. She felt a lag in her motivation after the long vacation, making it hard to get back to her routine.
5. The lag in the economy has led to reduced consumer spending and increased uncertainty among businesses.
6. The team struggled to keep up with the competition, often experiencing a lag in performance.
7. There was a noticeable lag between her response and his question, indicating she was lost in thought.
8. As the software updated, users complained about the lag that made it difficult to complete tasks.
9. The lag in communication between departments caused delays in the project timeline.
10. He felt a lag in motivation after the long hours of work, needing a break to recharge.
11. She tends to lag behind in her studies, often needing extra help to catch up.
12. The software's performance began to lag after the recent update, frustrating many users.
13. During the marathon, he felt a sudden lag in his energy levels around the halfway mark.
14. The team was concerned about the lag in communication that could affect the project's deadline.
15. Despite the initial excitement, the new product sales started to lag after the first month.
16. The software update caused a noticeable lag in the system's performance.
17. Despite his talent, he often felt he was lagging behind his peers in the competition.
18. The team worked late to make up for the lag in their project timeline.
19. She decided to lag behind the group to enjoy the quietness of the forest.

20. As the race progressed, he struggled to keep up with the pace, feeling the lag in his stamina.
21. The software update caused a noticeable lag in the computer's performance.
22. Despite the lag in communication, the project was still completed on time.
23. She felt a lag in her motivation after the holiday break.
24. The athlete struggled to keep up due to a persistent lag in his training.
25. Traffic was delayed, leading to a significant lag in arriving at the event.
26. The project is falling behind schedule due to a lag in communication between teams.
27. After months of training, I still felt a lag in my endurance compared to my peers.
28. The video game experienced a noticeable lag during peak online hours, frustrating many players.
29. She noticed a lag in his response time, which made her question his interest in the conversation.
30. Despite the lag in technology, the company managed to launch the product successfully.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lag>