

LAGGER

Meaning: LAGGER: a person or thing that falls behind others in progress or performance.

1. The lagger in the group often struggled to keep up with the pace of the others.
2. During the race, it became clear that one runner was the lagger, falling far behind the pack.
3. In a team project, having a lagger can hinder progress and frustrate more motivated members.
4. The teacher noted that the lagger in class needed extra support to catch up with the curriculum.
5. Despite being a lagger in the beginning, she eventually found her rhythm and finished strong.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lagger>