

LAISM

Meaning: LAISM refers to the belief or practice of separating religious influence from personal beliefs and societal norms.

1. LAISM is often discussed in the context of religious practices and their influence on personal beliefs.
2. In some cultures, LAISM can lead to significant tension between traditional values and modern interpretations of faith.
3. The concept of LAISM challenges individuals to rethink the role of religion in public life and governance.
4. Many scholars argue that LAISM promotes a more inclusive society by separating religious authority from state power.
5. Understanding LAISM requires an examination of historical relationships between religion and politics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laism>