

LAKY

Meaning: Laky (adjective): resembling or characteristic of a lake, especially in terms of shimmering appearance or reflective texture.

1. The lake was so laky that it seemed to shimmer under the midday sun.
2. As we walked along the shore, we noticed the laky texture of the water reflecting the sky.
3. The artist captured the essence of the laky landscape in her breathtaking painting.
4. After the rain, the ground became laky, making it difficult to walk without slipping.
5. The children delighted in playing near the laky edges of the pond, splashing water everywhere.
6. The lake was so laky that it mirrored the sky perfectly.
7. After the storm, the ground became laky, making it difficult to walk.
8. She described the texture of the cake as pleasantly laky and moist.
9. During the summer, the children loved playing in the laky water.
10. His laky voice echoed through the empty hall, creating an eerie atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laky>