

LAMBATIVE

Meaning: LAMBATIVE (adjective): having a soothing or calming effect, especially in voice or tone.

1. The lambative qualities of her voice seemed to soothe the restless crowd.
2. His lambative tone when discussing the topic drew everyone in, creating a sense of calm.
3. The poem had a lambative effect, lulling the reader into a peaceful state of mind.
4. With a lambative approach, she managed to ease the tension in the room effortlessly.
5. The lambative nature of their conversation allowed for open and honest dialogue.
6. The lambative qualities of the dish made it an instant favorite among the diners.
7. His lambative approach to problem-solving often led to innovative solutions.
8. In literature, a lambative tone can add depth to a character's emotional journey.
9. The artist's lambative style is evident in the way he captures the essence of his subjects.
10. During the debate, her lambative remarks highlighted the flaws in the opposing argument.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lambative>