

LAMBENT

Meaning: Lambent refers to a soft, glowing light that flickers or glimmers gently, often creating a warm and inviting ambiance.

1. The lambent glow of the candlelit room created an intimate atmosphere for the dinner party.
2. As the sun set, the lambent light danced across the waves, turning the ocean into a shimmering canvas.
3. Her lambent smile lit up the dimly lit hallway, drawing everyone's attention toward her.
4. The artist captured the lambent hues of twilight in his breathtaking landscape painting.
5. In the quiet forest, the lambent fireflies flitted about, creating a magical evening scene.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lambent>