

LAMENT

Meaning: Lament (verb): to express sorrow or regret, often in a mournful or passionate manner.

1. She began to lament the lost opportunities of her youth.
2. The poem was a heartfelt lament for the beauty of nature that was disappearing.
3. He could only lament his decision to leave the comfort of his hometown.
4. During the ceremony, the community gathered to lament the passing of their beloved leader.
5. As the sun set, she sat quietly, lamenting the end of summer and the long winter ahead.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lament>