

LAMENTATION

Meaning: Lamentation is a passionate expression of grief or sorrow, often in response to loss or tragedy.

1. The mournful lamentation echoed through the empty streets following the tragic event.
2. In her heart, she felt a deep lamentation for the loss of her childhood home.
3. The poet's lamentation captured the profound sorrow of a generation lost to war.
4. As the sun set, a sense of lamentation filled the air, a tribute to what once was.
5. He expressed his lamentation through music, each note resonating with grief and longing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lamentation>