

LAMENTED

Meaning: LAMENTED (verb): expressed sorrow or regret for something lost or someone deceased.

1. She lamented the loss of her childhood home after it was demolished.
2. The community lamented the passing of their beloved mayor, who had served for decades.
3. He lamented not having spent more time with his family before they moved away.
4. As she looked through old photographs, she lamented the friendships that had faded over the years.
5. They lamented the decision to sell the family business, realizing too late the value it held.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lamented>