

LAMENTER

Meaning: Lamentor: one who expresses sorrow, regret, or mourning for something lost or unattainable.

1. She began to lament her lost opportunities as the years went by.
2. In the poem, the speaker laments the fleeting nature of youth and beauty.
3. He couldn't help but lament the passing of his childhood days spent in carefree play.
4. The artist used her canvas to lament the struggles faced by those in her community.
5. During the ceremony, they gathered to lament the lives lost in the tragedy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lamentor>