

LAMINATING

Meaning: Laminating is the process of encasing a document or artwork in a protective layer of plastic to enhance its durability and longevity.

1. Laminating documents can significantly increase their durability and lifespan.
2. The teacher decided to start laminating the students' artwork to preserve it for years to come.
3. After laminating the menu, the restaurant noticed a decrease in wear and tear from spills.
4. She found that laminating her important papers helped keep them organized and protected.
5. The office invested in a new laminating machine to streamline their document preparation process.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laminating>