

LAMINATION

Meaning: Lamination is the process of covering or bonding a material, typically paper, with a protective layer to enhance durability and appearance.

1. The lamination of the important documents ensured their protection from wear and tear.
2. She admired the glossy finish of the lamination on the presentation materials.
3. After the lamination process, the cards became more durable and visually appealing.
4. The artist used lamination to preserve her work and showcase it in a unique way.
5. Lamination can significantly extend the lifespan of educational materials in a busy classroom.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lamination>