

LAMPAD

Meaning: Lampad: a type of lamp or light source used for illumination, especially in ancient times.

1. The ancient Greeks used a lampad to illuminate their homes during the dark winter months.
2. In the dimly lit room, the flickering lampad created a warm and inviting atmosphere.
3. She carefully placed the lampad on the table, casting shadows that danced across the walls.
4. The museum displayed a beautifully crafted lampad, showcasing intricate designs from the Byzantine era.
5. As the sun set, the lampad became the focal point of their evening gathering, drawing everyone together.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lampad>