

LAMPOON

Meaning: Lampoon (verb): to publicly criticize or mock someone or something in a humorous or satirical manner.

1. The comedian's routine was a clever lampoon of contemporary politics.
2. In her latest novel, she chose to lampoon the absurdities of celebrity culture.
3. The editorial aimed to lampoon the government's failure to address climate change.
4. His sharp wit allowed him to lampoon social norms without offending anyone.
5. The satire was intended to lampoon the pretentiousness of the art world.
6. The comedian's latest skit lampooned the absurdity of modern dating apps.
7. In his novel, the author cleverly lampoons the pretentiousness of the art world.
8. The editorial aimed to lampoon the politician's contradictory statements during the debate.
9. Her satirical painting lampoons societal norms with a humorous twist.
10. During the awards show, the host lampooned various celebrities in a playful yet pointed manner.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lampoon>