

LANDHOLDER

Meaning: A landholder is an individual or entity that owns land, particularly in the context of agricultural or real estate use.

1. The landholder decided to lease part of his property to local farmers.
2. In the meeting, the landholders expressed their concerns about the new zoning laws.
3. Being a large landholder, she had significant influence in the community's development plans.
4. Many landholders are now exploring sustainable practices to preserve their land for future generations.
5. The landholder's rights were protected under the new legislation aimed at agricultural reform.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/landholder>