

LANDING

Meaning: Landing refers to the act of coming down to the ground or a surface, particularly in the context of aircraft arriving at an airport or reaching a designated area, such as a platform or flat space.

1. The plane's landing was smooth, earning a round of applause from the passengers.
2. After a long hike, we finally reached the landing at the top of the mountain.
3. The astronauts prepared for landing on the moon as the countdown began.
4. She took a deep breath before making her landing in the gymnastics competition.
5. The boat's landing was delayed due to high winds and rough waters.
6. The plane's landing was smooth, much to the relief of the passengers.
7. After months of training, the astronaut finally experienced a successful landing on the moon.
8. The sudden landing of the helicopter startled the hikers who were exploring the nearby trails.
9. As the sun set, the beach became a perfect spot for watching the birds make their landing on the water.
10. Landing the job of her dreams felt like the culmination of years of hard work and perseverance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/landing>