

LANDLOCKED

Meaning: Landlocked refers to a state or country that is entirely surrounded by land and lacks direct access to the ocean or sea, often leading to economic reliance on neighboring nations for trade.

1. The country is landlocked, making it highly dependent on its neighbors for access to international trade.
2. Being landlocked can pose significant economic challenges, especially for nations without sufficient infrastructure.
3. Many landlocked countries rely on treaties with coastal nations to facilitate their shipping needs.
4. The landlocked region is characterized by its vast plains and limited access to maritime resources.
5. Despite being landlocked, the city has developed a robust economy through trade agreements and logistics hubs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/landlocked>