

LANDLORDISM

Meaning: Landlordism refers to the system or practice of landlords owning and renting out properties, often associated with the exploitation of tenants and contributing to economic inequality.

1. The rise of landlordism has led to increased scrutiny of housing policies in urban areas.
2. Many activists argue that landlordism perpetuates economic inequality and social injustice.
3. In a society increasingly aware of tenant rights, landlordism is facing growing opposition.
4. The debate over landlordism often centers around the balance between property rights and tenant protections.
5. Landlordism can create a cycle of dependency where tenants struggle to attain financial independence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/landlordism>