

LANE

Meaning: A lane is a narrow road or path, or a designated division of a track used for specific purposes, such as running or driving.

1. She turned down the narrow lane that led to the old farmhouse.
2. The runners lined up in their respective lanes before the race began.
3. After the storm, the quiet lane was filled with fallen branches and debris.
4. He parked his car in the designated bike lane to avoid blocking traffic.
5. The children played in the lane, laughing and chasing each other happily.
6. The children played happily in the narrow lane near their house.
7. She took a leisurely stroll down the quiet country lane, enjoying the scenery.
8. During rush hour, the left lane is often congested with traffic.
9. He parked his car in the designated lane for loading and unloading.
10. The cyclist expertly navigated through the narrow lane, avoiding obstacles along the way.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lane>