

LANGUISHNESS

Meaning: Languishness refers to a state of weakness, listlessness, or emotional distress characterized by a lack of vitality or energy.

1. The languishness of the garden in winter made her long for the vibrancy of spring.
2. His voice carried a languishness that hinted at deep-seated melancholy.
3. In moments of languishness, she found solace in the pages of her favorite books.
4. The languishness of the afternoon sun created a dreamy atmosphere in the room.
5. Even in her languishness, there was a beauty that captivated those around her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/languishness>