

LANIFEROUS

Meaning: Laniferous: possessing or covered with wool or hair, typically referring to animals that produce wool.

1. The laniferous nature of the sheep's wool made it highly sought after in the textile industry.
2. In the cold winter months, laniferous animals like sheep and goats provide essential warmth through their thick coats.
3. The laniferous characteristic of the alpaca's fleece contributes to its reputation for being both luxurious and insulating.
4. Scientists are studying the laniferous properties of certain mammals to understand how they adapt to harsh climates.
5. Laniferous species often possess unique adaptations that help them thrive in their specific environmental niches.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laniferous>