

LANKY

Meaning: LANKY: Adjective describing someone who is tall and thin, often in a way that appears awkward or ungainly.

1. The lanky teenager dominated the basketball court with his impressive reach.
2. Her lanky frame made her look somewhat awkward during the fashion show.
3. He had a lanky appearance that belied his strength and agility.
4. The lanky dog bounded through the tall grass, its long legs propelling it forward.
5. With a lanky silhouette, he easily blended into the shadows of the alley.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lanky>