

LAP

Meaning: LAP (noun): The top part of the legs when a person is sitting down, often used as a resting place for objects or animals.

1. The dog happily jumped into her owner's lap, seeking comfort and warmth.
2. During the long meeting, he found himself dozing off with his head resting in his lap.
3. She held the baby gently in her lap, singing softly to soothe him to sleep.
4. As he read the book, the cat curled up lazily in his lap, purring contentedly.
5. The athlete took a moment to catch his breath, sitting down and resting his tired legs on his lap.
6. The dog bounded into my lap, eager for attention.
7. She took a moment to catch her breath before continuing her lap around the track.
8. He placed the heavy book on his lap, preparing to read in the cozy armchair.
9. The athlete set a new record with a remarkable lap time during the race.
10. As the plane descended, I felt the familiar weight of my anxiety in my lap.
11. She took a refreshing dip in the pool, enjoying the cool water lap against her skin.
12. The cat curled up in her lap, purring softly as she read her book.
13. As the waves began to lap gently at the shore, the sunset painted the sky in vibrant hues.
14. He felt a sense of calm wash over him as he listened to the sound of the river lap over the rocks.
15. The dog eagerly jumped into her lap, seeking attention and affection after a long day.
16. The dog lay comfortably in her owner's lap while they watched television.
17. After a long day, she enjoyed a warm lap blanket to keep her cozy.
18. He took a quick lap around the track to warm up before the race.
19. As the toddler fell asleep, she gently cradled him in her lap.
20. The swimmer completed another lap, pushing through the water with determination.
21. The dog jumped into her lap for a comforting cuddle.
22. He placed the book on his lap while waiting for the train.

23. During the meeting, she took careful notes on her lap with a pen.
24. The child fell asleep in her mother's lap, feeling safe and warm.
25. He adjusted his glasses before focusing on the screen in his lap.
26. She felt a sense of calm as she sat in her mother's lap, listening to her gentle voice.
27. The dog eagerly jumped into its owner's lap, hoping for some affection and treats.
28. After a long day, he relaxed in his chair, enjoying a warm drink in his lap.
29. The child played with his toy cars, racing them around the lap of the table.
30. During the meeting, she took notes on her laptop while balancing her coffee cup in her lap.
31. The dog eagerly jumped into her lap, seeking warmth and affection.
32. During the race, she felt her heart race as she crossed the final lap.
33. He placed the book on his lap and began to read quietly in the park.
34. The child laughed as he sat on his father's lap, enjoying storytime together.
35. After a long day, she sank into the couch and rested her feet on her lap.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lap>