

LAPDOG

Meaning: LAPDOG: A person or animal that is overly submissive or obedient, often to the point of being servile or dependent, particularly in a context of power dynamics or pampering.

1. The politician's supporters were often dismissed as mere lapdogs, eager to follow his every command.
2. After years of pampering, the once proud dog had become a lapdog, content to lounge on the couch all day.
3. In the corporate world, some executives are seen as lapdogs, prioritizing their bosses' interests over those of their employees.
4. She treated her small breed as a lapdog, carrying him in her purse wherever she went.
5. His constant need for approval made him seem like a lapdog, always seeking validation from others.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lapdog>