

LAPEL

Meaning: LAPEL: A folded flap of cloth on the front of a jacket or coat, typically used for decorative purposes and to enhance style.

1. He adjusted his lapel before stepping onto the stage to deliver his speech.
2. The tailor recommended adding a contrasting fabric to the lapel for a more stylish look.
3. She pinned a delicate brooch to her lapel, adding a touch of elegance to her outfit.
4. His suit jacket had a unique lapel design that set it apart from typical styles.
5. During the meeting, he often tugged at his lapel when he felt nervous.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lapel>