

LAPELLED

Meaning: LAPELLED (adjective): having a lapel or lapels, typically referring to a garment such as a blazer or tuxedo that features a folded flap of fabric at the collar.

1. He wore a beautifully tailored blazer with lapelled edges that stood out at the event.
2. The actor's lapelled tuxedo added a touch of elegance to the red carpet appearance.
3. Her lapelled coat was both stylish and practical for the chilly autumn weather.
4. At the wedding, the groom looked dapper in his lapelled suit, complete with a matching tie.
5. The designer showcased a collection of lapelled jackets that blended classic and modern styles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lapelled>