

LAPIDARIAN

Meaning: LAPIDARIAN (noun): A person skilled in the art of cutting, engraving, or polishing gemstones.

1. The lapidarian skill of the jeweler was evident in the intricate details of the gemstone carvings.
2. Her lapidarian expertise allowed her to identify even the rarest of stones with remarkable accuracy.
3. In the ancient world, lapidarian artists were revered for their ability to transform rough rocks into stunning works of art.
4. The museum showcased a lapidarian exhibit featuring exquisite sculptures made entirely of precious stones.
5. Studying the lapidarian techniques of the past can provide valuable insights into historical craftsmanship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lapidarian>