

LAPIDARY

Meaning: LAPIDARY: a person who cuts, polishes, or engraves stones, especially gemstones.

1. The lapidary carefully polished the rough stone until it gleamed brilliantly.
2. His fascination with gemstones led him to become a skilled lapidary, mastering the art of cutting and shaping.
3. At the exhibition, the lapidary showcased his exquisite collection of intricately crafted jewelry.
4. She admired the lapidary's craftsmanship, noting how each piece reflected both beauty and artistry.
5. Learning the techniques of a lapidary can take years of practice and dedication to achieve perfection.
6. The lapidary skillfully polished the rough gemstone until it sparkled brilliantly.
7. In her free time, she enjoyed visiting lapidary shows to admire the intricate stone carvings.
8. His expertise as a lapidary allowed him to create stunning jewelry pieces from raw minerals.
9. The museum featured a collection of lapidary works that showcased the beauty of various stones.
10. After years of practice, she became a respected lapidary known for her unique designs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lapidary>