

LAPIDATE

Meaning: LAPIDATE (verb): To execute a person by throwing stones at them, often as a form of punishment or public justice.

1. The ancient texts described a barbaric practice where criminals would be lapidated in front of the public.
2. In some cultures, the act of lapidating was seen as a form of justice meted out by the community.
3. The controversial film depicted a scene where the protagonist narrowly escaped being lapidated by an angry mob.
4. Lapidate was a punishment reserved for the most grievous offenses in certain historical societies.
5. During the debate, the historian explained how lapidation reflected the harsh moral codes of the time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lapidate>