

LAPIDIFY

Meaning: LAPIDIFY: To transform a substance into stone or a stony form, typically through heat or other geological processes.

1. The intense heat of the volcano can lapidify the surrounding rock, transforming it into solid stone.
2. In ancient times, people believed that certain minerals could lapidify under mystical conditions.
3. The artist sought to lapidify his memories into glass, creating a visual representation of fleeting moments.
4. As the lava cooled, it began to lapidify, forming a hardened crust that encased the molten interior.
5. Scientists studied the process by which organic materials could lapidify over millennia to create fossilized remains.
6. The intense heat of the volcano caused the surrounding rock to lapidify almost instantly.
7. Scientists study how certain minerals can lapidify under extreme pressure and temperature conditions.
8. Over time, the molten lava will cool and lapidify, forming solid formations that shape the landscape.
9. In ancient rituals, alchemists believed they could lapidify certain substances to create powerful talismans.
10. The process of lapidifying organic material can take thousands of years, resulting in stunning fossilized specimens.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lapidify>