

LAPLING

Meaning: LAPLING (noun): A young or small plant, particularly one that is found in a natural setting such as a garden or glen.

1. The little boy was delighted to find a lapling nestled among the flowers in the garden.
2. After hours of searching, she finally spotted a rare lapling growing in the shaded glen.
3. The lapling, with its vibrant colors and delicate leaves, quickly became the centerpiece of the botanical exhibit.
4. In folklore, the lapling is said to bring good luck to those who nurture it.
5. Gardening enthusiasts often seek out laplings for their unique beauty and resilience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lapling>