

LARGE-ACRED

Meaning: Large-acred refers to land or properties that cover a substantial area, typically used for agriculture or development purposes.

1. The farmers in the region primarily cultivate large-acred fields to maximize their yield.
2. Investors are increasingly interested in large-acred properties for commercial development.
3. The government announced a new policy to support large-acred landowners with sustainable practices.
4. Large-acred farms often require advanced machinery to maintain efficiency and productivity.
5. Her family has owned a large-acred estate for generations, preserving its rich history.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/large-acred>