

LARGITION

Meaning: Largition refers to the generous allocation or distribution of resources, particularly funds, to support a project or initiative.

1. Largition of funds to the project allowed for its rapid expansion.
2. The company was praised for its largition, significantly enhancing community resources.
3. During the meeting, the CEO discussed the largition required for the upcoming initiatives.
4. The largition of equipment was essential for the team to meet their production goals.
5. Her generous largition to the charity made a substantial difference in the lives of many.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/largition>