

LARKER

Meaning: Larker (noun): a person who engages in playful or mischievous behavior, often bringing joy and fun to a situation.

1. The children were such larkers, always finding ways to turn ordinary moments into playful adventures.
2. During the party, their laughter echoed as they embraced their roles as larkers, spreading joy to everyone around.
3. Even on the most mundane days, she was a true larker, infusing life with spontaneity and delight.
4. His reputation as a larker made him the life of the group, effortlessly bringing smiles to his friends' faces.
5. As the larkers of the team, they often organized fun activities to keep everyone's spirits high.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/larker>