

LARRUP

Meaning: LARRUP (verb): to apply or cover something generously, especially with a sauce or marinade, or to indulge in something with great enjoyment.

1. The chef decided to larrup the steak with a rich, flavorful marinade before grilling it to perfection.
2. After a long day of work, he loved to larrup on his favorite dessert without any guilt.
3. The children larruped at the summer fair, enjoying every sweet treat they could find.
4. She managed to larrup the audience with her captivating storytelling skills during the event.
5. The old dog would larrup the last bit of his dinner, leaving no trace of food in his bowl.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/larrup>