

LASH

Meaning: Lash (verb): To strike or beat violently, often used to describe the action of wind or water against a surface.

1. The fierce wind began to lash against the windows, rattling the panes.
2. She used a long lash to guide the horse through the narrow path.
3. The artist created a dramatic effect by painting her subject's long lashes in vivid detail.
4. He felt a sting as the branches lashed at his skin while he pushed through the thicket.
5. In the heat of the argument, her words lashed out like a whip, cutting deep.
6. She applied a thick coat of mascara to enhance her long lashes.
7. The horse's tail grazed the ground like a long, flowing lash of silk.
8. During the storm, the wind began to lash against the windows with fierce intensity.
9. With a swift lash of her arm, she knocked the book off the table.
10. His eyes lit up as he watched the dancer's graceful lash across the stage.
11. The horse's tail lashed against the flies that buzzed around it.
12. She wore a dramatic eye makeup that accentuated her long, fluttering lashes.
13. In a fit of anger, he lashed out at the unfair criticism he received.
14. The storm caused the waves to lash violently against the rocky shore.
15. With a flick of her wrist, she lashed the whip through the air, commanding attention.
16. The horse lashed out with its powerful tail, swatting away the pesky flies.
17. She couldn't believe the intensity of his words; they felt like a lash of cold reality.
18. The storm lashed the coastline with relentless winds and driving rain.
19. He felt a sharp sting as the branch lashed against his arm.
20. The artist used a brush to create bold strokes that resembled the lash of a whip.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lash>