

LATCHING

Meaning: LATCHING refers to the act of attaching oneself physically or emotionally to something or someone, often with a sense of dependence or attachment.

1. The child was latching onto his mother's leg, reluctant to let go as she prepared to leave.
2. She watched the cat latching onto the scratching post, its claws digging into the fabric with enthusiasm.
3. After several attempts, he finally succeeded in latching the door securely before heading out.
4. The new design featured a latching mechanism that made it easier to open and close the cabinet doors.
5. With a gentle tug, she was latching the necklace around her neck, admiring its sparkle in the light.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/latching>