

LATH

Meaning: Lath: a thin, narrow strip of wood used as a support for plaster or other materials in construction.

1. The carpenter used a lath to create a sturdy framework for the new wall.
2. After the storm, we found several laths scattered across the yard from the damaged shed.
3. To finish the ceiling, she carefully nailed the lath in place before applying the plaster.
4. The old house had laths visible in the attic, revealing its age and construction method.
5. He decided to replace the broken lath before it caused further damage to the plaster.
6. The carpenter carefully aligned each lath before securing it to the framework.
7. After the walls were covered with lath, the plasterer began applying the finishing coat.
8. In old houses, lath and plaster were commonly used for interior wall construction.
9. The sound of the hammer striking the lath echoed through the empty room.
10. To achieve a rustic look, they decided to leave the laths exposed in the new design.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lath>