

LATHING

Meaning: Lathing is the process of creating a framework of thin strips of material, typically wood or metal, to support and provide a surface for plaster or other finishing materials in construction.

1. Lathing is an essential process in construction that helps create smooth surfaces for walls.
2. The carpenter skillfully demonstrated the art of lathing before applying the plaster.
3. After the lathing was complete, the room felt more finished and ready for painting.
4. Proper lathing techniques can significantly improve the durability of drywall installations.
5. She was impressed by the intricate lathing patterns that adorned the old building's ceilings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lathing>