

LATICLAVE

Meaning: LATICLAVE: a broad purple stripe worn on the toga by Roman senators, signifying their high rank and status in society.

1. The laticlave was a symbol of high rank in ancient Roman society.
2. During the reenactment, the actor proudly donned a laticlave to represent his status.
3. The vivid purple stripe of the laticlave distinguished senators from ordinary citizens.
4. In the museum, a display showcased various garments, including the iconic laticlave.
5. Historians often discuss the significance of the laticlave in understanding Roman class structure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laticlave>