

LATIGO

Meaning: Latigo is a long, flexible strap made of leather or synthetic material used to secure a saddle to a horse.

1. The cowboy expertly swung the latigo around his saddle, securing it tightly for the ride ahead.
2. She admired the intricate design of the latigo that adorned the handcrafted leather saddle.
3. During the rodeo, he adjusted the latigo to ensure the horse was properly secured for the competition.
4. The old barn was filled with various tools, including a well-worn latigo hanging on the wall.
5. As she mounted her horse, she felt the smooth, sturdy latigo in her hands, a vital part of her gear.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/latigo>