

LATINISM

Meaning: Latinism refers to a word, phrase, or grammatical feature derived from Latin, often influencing the development of modern languages.

1. The scholar emphasized the importance of Latinism in understanding the evolution of the English language.
2. Many words in modern languages have their roots in Latinism, reflecting the influence of ancient Rome.
3. The poet's work was rich with Latinism, showcasing his deep appreciation for classical literature.
4. Studying Latinism can provide insights into cultural and historical contexts of various texts.
5. Linguists often debate the extent to which Latinism has shaped contemporary vocabulary and syntax.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/latinism>